

Competition Policy Monitor - Guidelines for Authors:

1. Working Papers

- Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words (including footnotes and abstract), and must be submitted in Microsoft Word-format.
- Manuscripts must include an abstract of maximum 250 words, and three or more keywords including: competition, antitrust, diffusion, development, sustainable, (in)equality, competition law \ policy, cartels price fixing, bid rigging, dominance (abuse of), monopolization, market power, merger, M&As, state aid, sectoral regulation\ regulator and market regulations.
- Author's should indicate their institutional affiliation and disclose any funding bodies.
- Authors should use an acknowledged reference system such as the OSCOLA or the BlueBook.
- Submissions should be in English or bilingual (English and another language). Authors are encouraged to provide abstracts in English as well as the language of the jurisdiction covered, if possible.
- Papers should be submitted to submissions@competitionpolicymonitor.com.
- Questions regarding the submission may be directed to info@competitionpolicymonitor.com

2. Other Publications

General requirements:

- It is expected that submissions should have three or more of the following keywords: competition, antitrust, diffusion, development, sustainable, (in)equality, competition law \ policy, cartels price fixing, bid rigging, dominance (abuse of), monopolization, market power, merger, M&As, state aid, sectoral regulation\ regulator and market regulations.
- Author(s) should indicate their institutional affiliation and disclose any funding bodies.
- Author(s) should use an acknowledged reference system such as the OSCOLA or the BlueBook.
- Submissions should be in English or bilingual (English and another language). Authors are encouraged to provide a summary of their work in English as well as the jurisdiction covered, if possible.
- Publications should be submitted to submissions@competitionpolicymonitor.com.
- Questions regarding the submission may be directed to info@competitionpolicymonitor.com.

a. Case reports:

- We seek all types of case studies relevant to competition law and policy. Cases may include decisions of competition authorities, regulatory bodies and other public entities relevant to the field of study.
- Case studies should strive to go beyond the typical case presentations and delve deeper into the impact or significance of the ruling. In particular, we are interested in case presentations that make substantive empirical or theoretical contributions to the literature.
- A case report can cover either one case or a group of cases on certain topic or logical linkage. The facts, reasoning and outcome of the case(s) should be described in detail.

b. Book review:

- A book review may cover only one book and in general should be about 1000 words.
- It is expected to provide the readers with an engaging, informative, and critical discussion of the work.
- Reviews of books authored by leading thinkers in foreign languages relevant to the subject are encouraged.

c. Presentations:

- Submissions of presentations on relevant topics are welcome.
- Submissions are expected to be in PPT or PDF format.
- The presenter should clearly note the details of the conference \ seminar where said presentation which can be made public

3. Database

- Database submissions are expected to be in Excel format or Word document (such as in the form of table) and on a matter relevant to competition law and policy (such as compilation of antitrust cases, decisions of competition authorities on a given issue, sectoral regulation affecting competition in a certain sector...etc.)
- Author(s) should provide a summary description of the database, function, sources and method of data collection as well as any limitations to the data set.
- Author(s) should indicate their institutional affiliation and disclose any funding bodies.
- Submissions should be in English or bilingual (English and another language). Authors are encouraged to provide a summary of their work in English as well as the jurisdiction covered, if possible.
- Submissions should be made to submissions@competitionpolicymonitor.com.
- Questions regarding the submission may be directed to info@competitionpolicymonitor.com.